The Shroud Encounter

Tuesday, Feb. 17, SU Theater, 7:00 p.m.

Join the Multicultural Resource Center and explore the history of the Shroud of Turin, an artifact sought by Hitler for its supernatural power. Could it be the most important archaeological artifact ever found, or is it a medieval fake? Is it truly the shroud of Jesus? Audiences are taken on a thought-provoking adventure through early church history, ancient art, modern science, and medical forensics.

National Student Leadership Conference
Summer Staff Position

The National Student Leadership Conference is in the process of recruiting Site Assistants for their 2015 summer programs. Site Assistants work primarily from the office and are responsible for much of the “behind the scenes” work that makes the program run smoothly from day to day. Ideal candidates are hard workers with flexible personalities and an eye for detail and organization. The job posting can be found at http://www.nslcleaders.org/about-summer-youth-programs/job-opportunities/.

If you have questions about the application process or the position itself, email Erika Lecaj at erika.lecaj@nslcleaders.org.

Visit www.nslcleaders.org for more information about the National Student Leadership Conference and the programs and locations available for summer 2015.
