2014 Carolina Conference on Queer Youth

The Carolina Conference on Queer Youth is a program put on by the Multicultural Resource Center and Time Out Youth in Charlotte. The conference is free and allows students, faculty, staff, community members, and K-12 students the opportunity to learn about the lives of Queer young people. The conference will take place on October 17th in the Student Union and participants will have the opportunity to work with people in various fields and discuss ways we can outreach to and support this population. Students can sign up for the conference online at http://timeoutyouth.org/conference.

Commencement Speakers and Bell Ringers

The Dean of Students Office is currently seeking two student speakers and two bell ringers for the two December 2014 commencement ceremonies. The commencement speaker for each ceremony must represent the University well relative to good speaking skills, character and school spirit. The bell ringer is an honorable tradition that will recognize two outstanding student leaders who have demonstrated exemplary 49er spirit. To complete a Speaker application, go to https://orgsync.com/32873/forms/114501. Bell Ringer applications can be found at https://orgsync.com/32873/forms/114500.
